

I don't know why one would want to discriminate against satellite radio. I depend on their traffic reports and weather reports. It just makes no sense. Commercial and normal radio broadcasts just can't tolerate the competition provided by XM radio. The service is better and the commercials far less. And the reception and its continuity of reception are far superior.